Acknowledgement of Policies

- At no time should Pro Skills Basketball staff be in a situation where they are alone with a child or children and cannot be observed by others. If a staff member becomes alone with a child, he or she should promptly move to a location where he or she can be observed by other Pro Skills Basketball staff members.
- Pro Skills Basketball staff are mandated to report any suspicion of child abuse to the jurisdiction having authority. Staff should report to a Pro Skills Director any indication of or warning signs concerning abuse involving a child. Pro Skills basketball staff who identifies suspicious behavior or violation of policy by a fellow staff member should report the event to their Pro Skills Basketball supervisor immediately.
- At no time should Pro Skills Basketball staff engage in inappropriate physical contact with children. Staff should not touch children in any body location that would be covered by a bathing suit. Staff members should not pick-up children or allow children to sit on their laps.
- Directors and coaches will not buy gifts or give money to players.
- Directors and coaches will avoid fraternization with players in non-sanctioned settings.
- Pro Skills Basketball staff are expected to use decent language and act in a positive manner. Staff should not talk in a sexual manner, perform sexual gestures, sexual acts or attempt inappropriate contact with a child.
- Pro Skills basketball staff shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, clients, volunteers, subcontractors, vendors, and clients.
- Player and parent personal information including phone number, email, home address, etc. will not be disseminated without prior consent from said player or parent.
- The information used on this application can be used by Pro Skills Basketball to perform a background check.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand these policies and I have answered every question truthfully
